Registration 2019

Step 1: Go to registration page for Rugby Canada (https://reg.sportlomo.com/rugbycanada).

Step 2: Select Alberta as your province. Alphabetized list of Clubs will appear, input postal code for simplified list of Edmonton clubs; select Edmonton Pirates RFC.

Step 3: Select your desired membership type.

Information on membership types, including age requirements, listed for each selection. Further information on memberships can be found on Pirates website (http://www.piratesrugby.ca), and specific inquiries can be made to Kate Childs (registrar@piratesrugby.ca).

Once you have selected the membership(s) you would like, click registration option at bottom of page.

Step 4: You will be redirected to the SportLoMo webpage to complete your registration.

New Players: Create new account. Confirmation of registration and payment will be sent to the email used for account.

Returning Players: Use previously created SportLoMo account.

Step 5: Summary of membership selection(s) will appear, including total cost (not final cost, does not include additional processing fees). Corrections to membership types selected from Rugby Canada page can be made at this point.

Chart below provides the total final cost to be paid at registration for each membership type.

^{*}Multiple types of membership can be purchased at one time, and multiple players can be registered under one SportLoMo account; e.g. parent may register several family members as players in varying categories under their account.

Step 6: Complete registration page for each membership with personal data and questionnaire.

Step 7: Review Purchase Summary, then Proceed with Payment. Enter credit card information for payment (Mastercard, Visa, American Express accepted), and select to complete payment with credit card. This information is then transmitted securely through HTTPS encryption to the payment provider. SportLoMo has no access what so ever to credit card information nor is it ever stored.

Step 8: Your registration is complete! Membership registration and payment received confirmation will be emailed to you. You can review your registrations and member/player information, print receipts, and request refunds via your SportLoMo account.

Registration in further membership types and upgrades can be made throughout the season following Steps 1-7, using your existing SportLoMo account.
